NON-DISCLOSURE AGREEMENT

GILC Participant Name (PLEASE PRINT): ________________________________

Organization/Company: ____________________________________________

GILC participants will not directly or indirectly disclose, or furnish to any other person, or business, nor publish in any communications format what-so-ever, the names of any attendee or business, or the details of what will be formally or informally presented and discussed inside the GILC meeting.

GILC participants will not quote anyone, speaker or participant, of anything said, heard, or presented inside the GILC meeting, in any communications format what-so-ever.

GILC participants will respect the rights of fellow participants who openly express their views at GILC. Our purpose is to conduct an open forum where all views are welcome and kept strictly confidential.

It is understood that the term confidential information does not apply to any information which is obtainable in the public domain.

Speakers who are introducing the topics for discussion are presenting their own work and are representing themselves and/or their organizations, not GILC.

Following the GILC meeting, the GILC Committee will issue a report that can be circulated, first to attendees, and then to the media. Names of the participants will not be quoted in these reports; only the details and outcomes of the discussions will be announced. Any follow-up work done by the committees formed in the GILC will do their reporting in the same manner.

I have read and agree to the above statements:

________________________________________
SIGNATURE of participant